The President Decides to Have the General's Charges Investigated at Once.

Alger Will Get Just What He Has Been Anxious to Avoid, the Real Truth.

Report of War Investigating Committee Will Be Received Before Action Is Taken.

Washington, Feb. 3.-General Miles will be ordered to appear before a court of in-

The President decided upon this course to-day. Before the Cabinet meeting Secretary Alger and Attorney-General Griggs were closeted with the President. Alger made a last effort to secure Miles's court-martial or his detail to waiting orders or to the command of some military department. The President realized that if Miles were removed from command of the army he would demand a court of inquiry in his own interest, and perhaps because of that consideration decided to initiate the court sident, Secretary Alger and Attormembers not directly interested said were willing to leave the matter to bresident, Secretary Alger and Attor-leaneral Griggs. They were informed a court of inquiry would be ordered, setary Gage thought this judiclous, uggested that the country ought to the facts after a full and official ty. If the packers had been using brious substances in preparing the state people had a right to know it, in the other hand, General Miles had charges not founded on fact, the peopre equally entitled to know it, after had been proved, it would be time in to talk of punishing General Miles, tary Alger wanted General Miles, tary Alger wanted General Miles sust of the court, but this was overruled a ground that such action would look uch like prejudging him.
